OVERVIEW

FABREGA MOLINO is a Panamanian full-service law Firm with an established tradition of excellence through many decades, composed of a multidisciplinary team, all of them committed and focused on the clients' specific needs.

We value the diversity of our workplace and align our services around every aspect of E.S.G. (environmental, social, and governance).

Our client portfolio includes multinational corporations and institutions, first-class banks, manufacturing and trade companies, ship-owners and agents from the Fortune 500 list, also, international Firms and high-net-worth individuals.

As a result, significant publications and analysts within legal circles, such as Chambers & Partners, Who's Who Legal, Legal 500, amongst others, have recognized the excellence of our services countless times.

EXPERTISE

ANTITRUST & COMPETITION: Since Panama's National Assembly enacted Panama's first competition law in 1996 (the current law enacted in October 2007), we have been involved intensively in advising major commercial, industrial, media and communications and other foreign and local investors on compliance with the law, and in defense of claims denouncing unfair trade practices and forbidden mergers and concentrations.

ARBITRATION & LITIGATION: FABREGA MOLINO has a team of lawyers with expertise in arbitration processes. The Firm has lawyers as Arbiters and Secretaries of Arbitration Tribunals recognized and registered before the Center of Conciliation and Arbitration of Panama. FABREGA MOLINO represents plaintiffs or defendants before courts and arbitration processes related to a variety of civil, commercial, and maritime matters, securities and bond-related claims, trademarks and patents, competition, class actions, consumer rights, banking litigation, among others. In the commercial area, FABREGA MOLINO has experience assisting in financial restructuring, bankruptcy, and commercial processes and a collection of documentary credits, litigation in contractual matters, shareholder claims, annulment, and replacement of lost shares issued by Panama companies. We act as litigation counsel for small, medium, and large businesses and individuals, and we represent them in the use of constitutional remedies to protect their rights.

AEROSPACE & AVIATION: FABREGA MOLINO'S Aerospace and Aviation Department is composed of a group of lawyers committed to helping guide our clients through an increasingly complex regulatory landscape where national and international regulations may interact or conflict. Our comprehension of the aviation practice includes economic, legislative, safety, and international aviation regulations. Our professionals are qualified to advise airlines on the full range of their legal needs. This wide range includes handling agreements, hedging agreements, fuel agreements, consulting, licensing and certification, purchase or lease of aircraft, land and airport lease negotiations, partnering arrangements with fellow carry, competition, compliance, and employment law.

BANKING & FINANCE: Since its founding, banking & finance have been at the core of FABREGA MOLINO's practice. Firm's clients include some of the largest local and international Banks in the Republic of Panama, Trust Companies, and other financial institutions. The Firm has vast experience advising banking clients in connection with a wide range of business transactions and representing their interest as agents, arrangers, and lenders, as well as corporate borrowers. Our practice covers a wide range of services to satisfy our client's needs in the process of establishing and developing a banking operation in Panama. Our services include the application before the Superintendency of Banks of Panama for the different types of banking licenses, trust company's licenses, and any regulatory assistance related to Banking and Finance company's operations. FABREGA MOLINO keeps up to date with the new banking and finance sector regulations to advise clients on the contents and applicability of such rules and to ensure that with their assistance and legal opinions, they are protecting their client's rights.

BLOCKCHAIN & CRYPTOCURRENCIES: Blockchain technology may very well be the most significant innovation in accounting since the double-entry system. Cryptocurrencies are the first and most common use case for blockchain technology. In Panama, there is no regulation regarding these issues. However, FABREGA MOLINO has a specialized team that makes considerable efforts to support and advise our clients on best practices and valuable solutions. It also monitors regulation development and other blockchain applications such as digital signatures, smart contracts, property protection, and asset tokenization.

CORPORATE: FABREGA MOLINO counts with a specialized team for the organization of Panamanian corporate structures, as well as International Business Corporations (I.B.C.) and other jurisdictions. We provide legal services to our clients to create commercial, tax, and advisory structures specific to international transactions. Our corporate practice area covers both public and private corporations, representing local capital companies and subsidiaries, companies, contracts, businesses, daily business, and customer strategy.

CAPITAL MARKETS: FABREGA MOLINO has assisted many clients in obtaining different types of licenses before the Superintendence of Securities Markets, including securities brokerage and investment funds administration. Our lawyers also support and advise clients in connection with private and public securities offerings in the Panamanian capital market, as well as structuring and registration of investment funds. The Firm's diverse securities practice includes representing financial institutions in various debt and equity offerings in Panama.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE & COMPLIANCE: FABREGA MOLINO's professionals have participated in the creation, modification, drafting, and analysis of mechanisms, processes, and relations by which corporations are controlled and directed. The Firm experiences have brought about a professional enrichment in this practice and have created solid relationships with major law firms and specialized corporate governance. The Compliance team offers a broad spectrum of organizational compliance expertise at the national and international levels. Our team is involved with the design, implementation, and monitoring of active policies, programs, procedures, and practices surrounding compliance by our clients with legal and regulatory requirements applicable to the organization's business activities and the detection of potential violations of these legal and regulatory requirements.

CYBERSECURITY & DATA PROTECTION: FABREGA MOLINO has a team of professionals who can support our clients in this new area of law to address the needs that arise as new technologies advance accompanying our clients in complying with existing regulations. We advise a large number of leading companies in different sectors, such as the pharmaceutical, franchise, consumer goods, and multinational companies of well-known brands worldwide.

ENERGY & NATURAL RESOURCES: Our Firm provides support and advice on the full spectrum of Energy and Natural Resources issues across the board for oil, gas, and mineral producers, governments and national energy companies, electric transmission companies; developers and owners of wind power and other renewable energy sources, as well as companies trading electricity, natural gas, financial instruments, and emissions; and financial institutions providing capital and related services to these industries. We have extensive experiences, such as contractual and financing aspects, planning aspects, and issues derived from compliance and regulatory aspects, licenses, and government concessions, enabling us to provide our clients with truly commercial and balanced legal advice.

ENVIRONMENTAL: Environmental Law has changed over the last decades, and we have evolved along with it. FABREGA MOLINO's Environmental practice assists our clients with issues under the environmental laws that affect their businesses. We help clients navigate routine and complex environmental issues to help them overcome complicated (often political) challenges so they can focus on their goals with greater clarity and confidence. Our clients benefit from our decades of practice in the environmental area. Our environmental lawyers have handled matters involving issues under national and international regulations. We advise clients on traditional environmental regulatory issues, and we assist in developing business strategies that benefit from environmental opportunities or address regulatory challenges.

ESTATE PLANNING & PRIVATE CLIENT: FABREGA MOLINO specializes in counseling our clients regarding assets planning and management and offering counseling services with regards to tax matters. We represent corporate clients as well as high net-worth individuals. Our services within this legal area include:

- Counseling in family equity planning.
- Counseling in the formation and structuring of schemes for the orderly transfer of family assets
- Formation and management of Private Interest Foundations
- Structuring and management of Trusts
- Tax Counseling
- Counseling in inheritance matters.
- Instructions for passing values (religion, education, hard work, etc.).
- Instructions for personal care if the person becomes disabled before die.
- Minimize taxes, court costs, and unnecessary legal fees.
- Provide for family members with special needs without disrupting government benefits.
- Provide for those who might be irresponsible with money or who may need ultimate protection from creditors or divorce.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS: FABREGA MOLINO has maintained for many years a solid reputation and expertise in several of the most relevant government contracts in Panama. Our broad experience in practice on Public Contracts gives us a strong record of expert work and benefits in our team of specialists involved in many outstanding deals in the industry. They manage the legal structure for the process, advising on regulatory, compliance, and all the related legal and commercial issues, negotiating and drafting the agreement terms, onwards to the conclusion.

HEALTH CARE & LIFE SCIENCE: FABREGA MOLINO provides strategic legal counsel to a diverse group of companies and organizations in the Health Care in Life Science sector. We combine our dedicated health care and life science experience with the Firm's broad capabilities in related disciplines, including corporate, tax, finance, antitrust, litigation, and intellectual property, to provide our clients with a wide range of legal services. We handle domestic and cross-border matters offering an integrated service to our life sciences and healthcare clients worldwide.

HOSPITALITY & LEISURE: Panama has become a favorite investment destination for hotels, consortiums, and tourism companies. Our Firm has advised some of the most prestigious hotels established during the last years in Panama in all matters related to hotel operations, public concessions, labor and employment, hotel management agreements, trademark licensing agreements, and related issues. We offer a wide range of services such as property search, negotiation of purchase contracts, obtainment of visa and work permits, company formation, tax advice, the opening of bank accounts, among others.

IMMIGRATION: The migratory standards of the Republic of Panama allow the entrance and residence of citizens of any nationality subject to specific requirements according to the occupation or purpose of residence. A foreigner has the option to obtain any of the Immigrant Visas valid for a period of one to five years (according to the type of visa). Afterward, he can get a Permanent Residence. Any company wishing to establish in this country, having foreign personnel, must have proper counseling to avoid procedures not following the parameters of the national migratory authorities. Our Firm offers to counsel executing professionally all legal proceedings that best adjust to their migratory situation.

INSURANCE & REINSURANCE: Insurance services are one of Panama's primary services as an international financial center. The leading global insurance companies of the region are established in Panama and pioneering Latin American insurance companies. FABREGA MOLINO has a professional team of lawyers committed to legal assistance and consultancy service to the Insurance industry and all matters related to their organization, operation, and dealings with the national authorities. Thus, whether our client is an insurer, reinsurer, intermediary, financial institution, or governmental entity, we can address all aspects of the property-casualty and life and health business. We ensure that the regulatory and other administrative requirements are fulfilled and assist in establishing new companies for a variety of insurance operations and acquiring licenses for life and non-life services, insurer and insurers, intermediaries, brokers, and captives companies.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY: By combining litigation and registration, we take effective action to protect our clients' intellectual property. Our Firm has decades of experience defending the interests of legitimate trademark owners in America and Europe. As such, we can initiate required legal actions before the Panamanian courts. Through our correspondents, we can also take preemptive measures by registering trademarks in the rest of Latin America to prevent our clients' competitors from having a priority right of use. In addition to trademarks, we also provide consultancy and conduct litigation on:

- Patents and industrial models.
- Copyright of publications, software, and other literary works.
- Internet domain names and computer law.
- Licensing, franchising, and trade secret protection.

Our experience in other areas also allows us to advise on assignments and hold intellectual property, structure their ownership for collateralization, asset protection, and other business reorganization purposes.

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT: FABREGA MOLINO offers a wide range of employment and labor law solutions to assist employees globally. Our professionals have substantial transactional experience and regular advice on the employment and labor law aspects of multi-jurisdictional corporate reorganizations and mergers and acquisitions. A broad range of large and small corporations, non-profit organizations, and trade associations regularly seek legal advice and counsel from FABREGA MOLINO on issues relating to the employer-employee relationship. These businesses include banks and other financial institutions, manufacturers and distributors, retailers, advertising agencies, and telecommunications companies. Labor and employment also encompass internal policies and procedures adopted by organizations to minimize risk to the organization and ensure ethical behavior and personal conduct. Our vast experience enables clients to come to the Firm with all labor-related problems, including drafting labor contracts and regulations, representation in litigation, extra-judicial processes of conciliation, and negotiation of collective bargaining agreements.

MERGERS, ACQUISITIONS: We advise on the full range of corporate, commercial and, mergers and acquisitions matters. Our professional lawyers will set us apart from other Firms and allow us to offer our clients unparalleled depth and breadth of global service. Our practice includes negotiation and drafting of contracts and other commercial documents of all kinds, including those concerning the manufacture, product licensing and distribution, export-import, real property, loans, financings, advises on whether to be carried out in Panama or elsewhere, and advises on antitrust and unfair competition legislation. We represent clients with all aspects of mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, investments, and strategic transactions, leveraged buyouts, "going private" transactions, cross-border transactions, and equity investments in public and private companies, from structure and strategy to negotiation and documentation. Our Firm has represented institutional and corporate clients in transactions of all sizes, many of them involving complex tax, securities, intellectual property, corporate governance, and labor issues that are handled by a cross-disciplinary team of our attorneys.

PROJECT FINANCE: FABREGA MOLINO assists clients in identifying investment opportunities, structuring, establishment, and protection. Upon the client's request, we support them in putting together a complete package conceiving all aspects of the project and investment in the country, including its finance and corporate and tax structure. The Firm also facilitates the finance and establishment process by contacting and connecting the client with the government or private sector's appropriate authorities to expedite the process.

REAL ESTATE: The Firm has extensive experience in real estate practice representing corporations, individuals, real estate investors, lending institutions, contractors, and developers. Our professional lawyers have vast experience in the preparation, negotiation, and closing of purchase agreements for the acquisition and sale of unimproved land, commercial, multi-use, and residential buildings, shopping centers, and warehouse developments; the negotiation, drafting, and closing of permanent, construction, and revolving credit facilities; the negotiation and closing of loan work-outs; the negotiation and preparation of complex commercial leases; the representation of clients in land use matters, including zoning, special permits, and other governmental requirements; the negotiation and preparation of construction contracts and subcontracts; architect agreements; syndications; and counseling clients on regulatory issues related to real estate.

SHIPPING: FABREGA MOLINO has a shipping department integrated by attorneys and legal assistants with experience in rendering these specialized services. The Firm provides a wide range of legal services connected with vessels and mortgage registrations and ship financing transactions. Panama has a continuous objective to provide maritime-related services of the highest level through its Registry, one of the oldest in the world, founded in 1925, and with first place in the international merchant fleet. Since Panama may have time differences concerning some of the common countries involved in the shipping business, FABREGA MOLINO offers a 24 - hour service, which includes all aspects for the management of vessels.

SPECIAL TAX REGIMES: Panama has created a set of laws and regulations that allow local and foreign investors to establish businesses in particular segregated areas that possess a variety of fiscal, migratory, and labor incentives with the primary objective of developing different types of activities and promoting international trade, manufacturing production and complimentary services. These are known as Special Economic Zones. Since 1948, Panama offers tax benefits, migratory, and labor incentives to those local or international companies who want to invest in Panama to promote international trade. The special economic areas play an essential role in the region. The City of Knowledge, regulated by Decree since 1998; Panama Pacifico governed by law since 2004; and Colón Free Zone (C.F.Z.), regulated by Decree in 1948, are special economic areas. Besides, there is a special regime to Multinational Corporations Headquarters (M.C.H.) created by law in 2007 that is a legal entity able to operate as a foreign company registered in Panama or Panamanian company, property of the transnational company. The Firm has extensive experience in this practice, offering our clients a full range of legal services.

TAX: Our Firm has a team of attorneys with vast experience guiding national and foreign clients concerning Panamanian fiscal standards and the implications of businesses and financial or commercial transactions to be carried out in the Republic of Panama. We guide our clients on how to structure their operations so as not to produce tax expenses more significant than those legally established and inform them on exemptions, fiscal benefits of specific procedures.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS, MEDIA & TECHNOLOGY: The Firm advises the legal and business issues faced by our clients in the telecommunications, media, and technology sector and its regulatory body on all aspects, including regulatory, corporate, and licensing issues. Our lawyers understand the legal and business issues faced by our clients in the TMT industries. In the Telecommunications, Media & Technology sector, our Firm has been involved in the legal restructuring of the industry from the beginning. It has some of the major players in the business in our client's portfolio.

TRUST: Panama has had advanced fiduciary legislation since 1924, adopted from Anglo-Saxon Law, which has been revised over time to incorporate the experiences and update it following the needs of the current times. The fiduciary law does not differentiate between the trust for local or international purposes. Therefore, the Panamanian trust is used increasingly by foreign users; hence, the Panama trusts are used for various purposes, whether as a guarantee, development, or securitization trusts or private purposes such as protecting assets, estate planning, or inheritance trusts. FABREGA MOLINO provides a wide range of services to individual clients in Panama and worldwide in the field of trust. The lawyers of our Firm work closely with our tax experts to provide tax planning services to clients.

(B.I.P.A.N.), to prepare all the documentation to merge such corporation with GRUPO FINANCIERO CONTINENTAL, S.A. owner of the shares of Banco Continental S.A. We also took care of the authorizations formalities before the National Securities Commission and the Superintendency of Banks for them to approve the transaction. This merger was a unique experience in Panama as it envisaged the purchase of shares from those shareholders of the merged corporation. They did not wish to be shareholders of the surviving corporation as in the transactions above. All the legal documentation had to be prepared, and the corresponding procedures had to be carried out before the National Securities Commission and the Superintendency of Banks. Concerning the National Securities Commission, as the purchase of shares to the dissident shareholders was the first experience, FABREGA MOLINO had to make representations and provide legal support before the National Securities Commission to substantiate that there was no need for a tender offer to repurchase such shares.

- The legal counsel of multinational brewer HEINEKEN to acquire the part corresponding to the Cervecerías Barú S.A. after a process of selection similar to that of I.N.C.E.M. and Cervecería Nacional. Therefore, FABREGA MOLINO had to revise and negotiate the particular terms and conditions of the invitation made by the financial advisors of the sellers, verify and negotiate the terms and conditions of the sales agreements, according to the recommendations of our client (Heineken) financial advisors. Besides, FABREGA MOLINO prepared and structured all documents and protocols required to launch the tender offer as a vehicle to obtain the beer-related part and carry on its approval by the National Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange. The acquisition is completed, FABREGA MOLINO carried out the process of cancelation of the Registry of Cervecerías Barú-Panamá, S.A. as a public business. This transaction was the first tender offer to be structured through an increase of capital of the leading corporation to guarantee the purchaser corporation the control of the corporation and after launch a tender offer to take the shares of the seller's shareholders, at the same time with another separated tender offer to acquire the shares of the subsidiary brewery. By this creative innovation, F.M.M. had to carry out representations and supports before the National Securities Commission to back the legal grounds and validity of the transaction without prejudice to the minority shareholder's rights.

- A bond issue of the Empresa de Generación Eléctrica Ege Fortuna, S.A, and an energy plant. F.M.M. acting as an advisor to the banks, prepared all the legal documentation related to this bond issue.
- Legal Counsel of Corporacion Income, S.A., own by CEMENTO PANAMA, S.A. And subsidiary of HOLDERBANK FINANCIERE GLARIS and CEMENTOS DEL CARIBE, S.A. FABREGA MOLINO negotiated the terms and conditions, structured the sales transaction through the Stock Exchange; prepared the data room; carried out the proceedings before the National Exchange Commission to obtain its approval and execute the transaction. This was the first Tender Offer undertaken in the history of Panama.
- The legal counsel of the shareholders of the majority of shares of CERVECERIA NACIONAL, S.A., a brewery company, in the transaction with the GRUPO BAVARIA. FABREGA MOLINO negotiated the terms and conditions, structured the operation to execute the sale though tender, carried out the proceedings before the Stock Exchange to obtain the authorization, prepared the documentation, and proceeded to execute the transaction successfully.
- Legal Counsel of HSBC BANK USA. Our team prepared all legal documents and carried out the respective procedures before the Superintendency of Banks, the Ministry of Economy and Finance and the Public Registry to sale THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK (in Panama) assets and liabilities to the HSBC BANK USA and the closure of its operations in our country.
- Legal Counsel of The Chase Manhattan Bank for more than forty years until the same sold its assets to the HSBC BANK (U.S.A.) of the United States. While we were Chase's lawyers, we prepared and handled all legal documentation related to the merger process between THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK, N.A. and CHEMICAL BANK for its transformation into THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK concerning its implementation in Panama before the Superintendency of Banks, the Public Registry and authorities of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, the Ministry of Economy and Finance and several municipalities where the bank carried out its operations.
- Sale of I.N.C.I.S.A. to the U.N.I.S.O.L.A. Group, associates of UNILEVER in Central America. I.N.C.I.S.A. was the holding company of a group of companies dedicated to the manufacture of edible oils, fats, bleachers, detergents, soaps. The work performed by FABREGA MOLINO included the negotiation of the terms and conditions, representations and warranties of the sales agreement, the implementation of the transaction, and the payment of taxes before the authorities.
- Legal Counsel of HARARI GROUP to acquire the control of CIA INTERNACIONAL DE SEGUROS, S.A., one of the more important insurance companies in the country and the oldest in Central America (founded in 1910). FABREGA MOLINO negotiated the purchase agreements with the shareholders and processed the authorizations to carry out the transaction with the Superintendency of Insurance and Reinsurance.

JORGE MOLINA MENDOZA Ciarb.

jmolina@fmm.com.pa

Senior Partner

Jorge Molina Mendoza is a senior partner of FABREGA MOLINO and leads the Litigation practice of the Firm. He stands out because of his representation and advice of local and international clients in local and regional matters in Latin America and the Caribbean. His practice is characterized by the complexity of the issues entrusted to him, regardless of whether they are litigious or not. Most matters attended by Jorge fall into commercial litigation, banking litigation, antitrust, liquidation procedures, family litigation, cross-border litigation, and insurance litigation. He is also markedly recognized for his experience in both national and international arbitration; in this field, Jorge has represented government offices as well as national and international companies.

Regarding the type of clients Jorge has assisted, these comprise a diverse range, from multinational corporate clients, persons whose wealth is managed by family offices, important national companies, and even government entities.

Another facet that stands out in Jorge's practice is his acting in regularly complex negotiations; because of this, local colleagues tangibly recognize him as a successful and well-recommended attorney.

These conditions have allowed Jorge to belong to the board of directors of local banks and companies belonging to the media industry; he was president for five years of the Fundación para el Desarrollo de la Libertad Ciudadana, Panama Chapter of Transparency International. Jorge has lectured in several Panama universities and has published articles in local and international reviews.

During the last eight years, he has been classified as a Band 1 attorney by Chambers & Partners and considered one of the country's best litigators. Jorge has received this same distinction from Dispute Resolution, PLC Cross-Border, The Legal 500, John Pritchard Handbooks, and Who's Who Legal for Latin America, among others.
